

PANORAMAS

Panorama 1 taken at Berry Hill Pike, illustrates the bowl effect of the landscape

Panorama 2 taken from the footpath north of Poolway Farm, illustrates the strong field pattern and linear hedgerows

Arable land use

Coleford

Panorama 3 taken from the footpath south of Lords Hill illustrates arable land use

Berry Hill Pike skyline

Isolated woodland pocket

Development along B4028

Panorama 4 taken from the footpath south of Lords Hill illustrates the woodland pockets

Stone Farmsteads

Panorama 5 taken from the footpath north of Poolway Farm approaching the golf course looking in a southerly direction, illustrates the field pattern with scattered farmsteads

Remnants of hedgerows

Remnants of hedgerows

Panorama 6 taken from the footpath west of the B4028, running through Forest Hills Golf Course illustrates the manicured landscapes & remnants of field pattern

Panorama 7 taken from the footpath leading to Buchanan's Recreation Ground looking in a south easterly direction illustrates the wooded valley.

Panorama 8 taken from the footpath north of the Smith Klyne Beecham factory illustrates the crest of the hill and the extensive views reaching to the Wye Valley AONB

Panorama 9 taken from the footpath opposite Rock Lane looking along Newland Road, illustrates the wooded valley with scattered dwellings and smallholdings.

Panorama 10 taken near Whitecliff from the track running parallel to Newland Road illustrates the steep wooded valley

1

2

3

4

5

6

7

8

9

10

SEQUENTIAL WALK

Sequential Walk along the footpath running from The Gorse through to Five Acres Crossroads. The walk illustrates the character elements present within the landscape today and the changing nature of the landscape at the approach to the settlement.

Development along B4028

Rough pasture near Poolway

Bells Hotel

Telecommunication mast & garage at Five Acres

CLUSTER 1 Arc of Settlements

Five Acres

Coalway

Mile End

Coalway Playing Field

CLUSTER 2 Settlement Fringe

Lords Hill

Palmers Flat