When we work out the council tax bill we assume there are two or more adults (people who are 18 years or over) living in a property. If only one adult lives in the property, you can apply for a single person's discount, which will reduce your bill by 25%.

How many adults live in the property?		If only one adult lives in the property, what date has this been from?
---------------------------------------	--	--	--

We may also reduce the bill by 25% if two or more adults live in a property and all but one of them fall into one or more of the following categories. If this is the case in your home, please tick the appropriate boxes and we will send you the relevant form as needed.

Students		Youth training scheme trainees
Apprentices		People who are mentally impaired
Carers		Long-term residents in hospital
Care workers		Residents in care homes
Prisoners		Members of religious communities
Non-British partners of students		Members of visiting armed forces
18 or 19 years old still in full time education		People with diplomatic privileges or immunity
Are all the people who live in the property students?	Please circle Yes No

Housing benefit & council tax support

If you receive a low income and are finding it difficult to pay your rent and or council tax you may be entitled to housing benefit and/or council tax support. Please go to the benefits pages for more information and to make a claim.

Payment

The easiest and most convenient way to pay your council tax is by direct debit. If you wish to pay by direct debit, please go to the council tax payments page for information on how to set this up. The council tax payments page also gives information of the other ways available to pay your council tax.

Declaration

I declare that the information I have given is complete and accurate to the best of my knowledge. I understand that the Council may check the information I have provided. I am aware that should a discount be incorrectly granted on the basis of the information I have provided and I fail to inform the Council of this fact, then I may be liable to a fine of up to £280.00. I undertake to notify the Council of any changes to the information I have provided.
